As of November 28, 2022, The Province of Ontario's Bill 23, the More Homes Built Faster Act, limits those who are allowed to appeal a decision made by the Committee of Adjustment & Appeals ("COAA"). With this Provincial change, only the applicant, the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing, or "specified person" or "public body", as specified under section 1(1) of the Planning Act, may appeal a decision of the COAA. Individuals are no longer permitted to do so. If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the COAA for the Town of Kingsville to the Ontario Land Tribunal ("OLT"), but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Clerk of the Town of Kingsville before it gives or refuses to give provisional consent, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Clerk before a decision is made, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of COAA to the OLT. The person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the OLT unless, in the opinion of the OLT, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

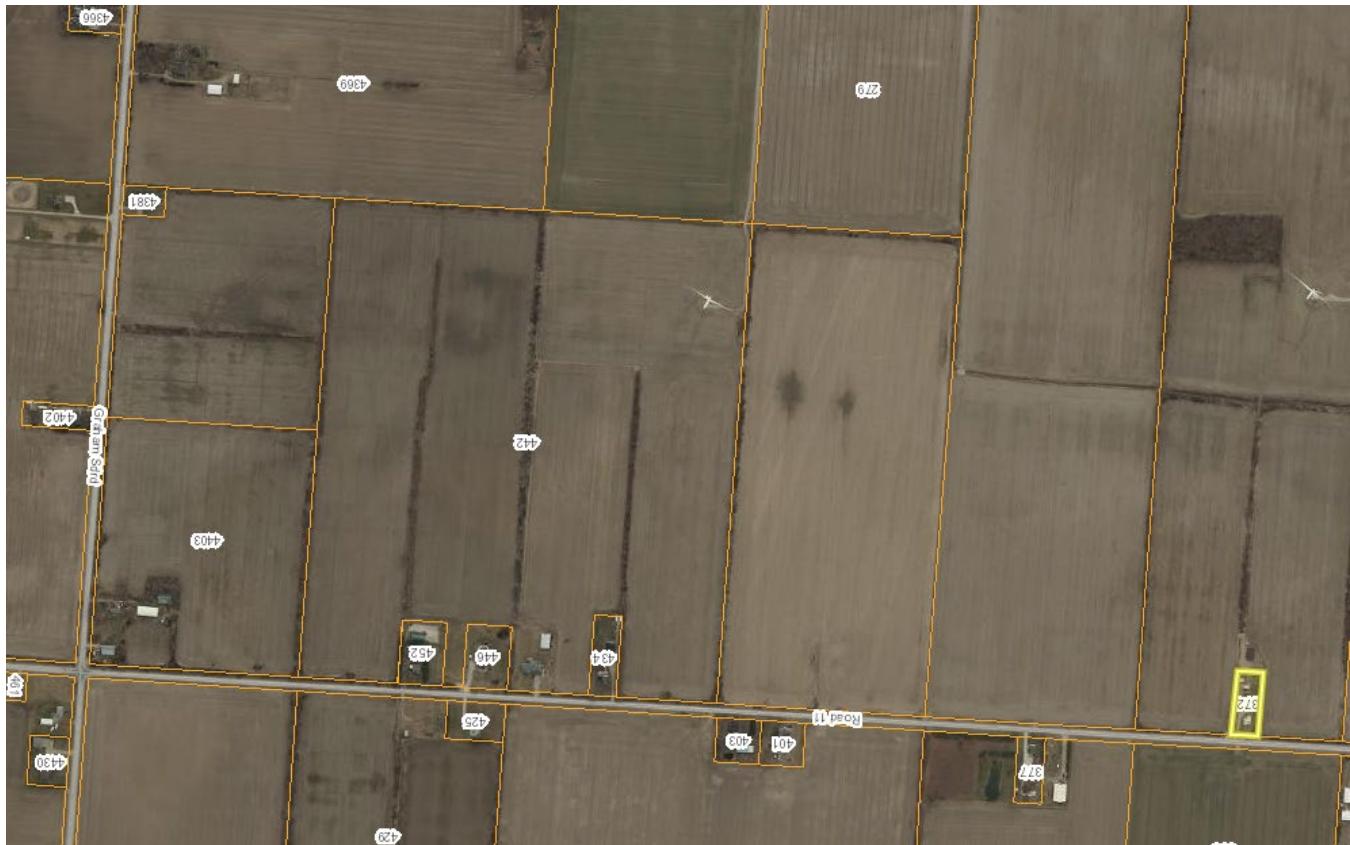

Notwithstanding the above, Subsections 45(12) of the Planning Act define the parties that are eligible to appeal the decision to the OLT.
